

Wilson Wraight Cookie Policy

Last updated: March 2026

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer, phone or tablet when you visit a website. They help websites work properly, remember your preferences, and understand how people use the site.

2. How we use cookies

We use cookies to make sure our website works properly, understand how visitors use our website, remember your preferences, improve the content and performance of our site, and support marketing and advertising where you have agreed.

3. Types of cookies we use

Strictly necessary cookies are essential for the website to function and do not require consent. Analytics, functionality, and marketing cookies are only used if you give permission.

4. Managing your cookie preferences

When you first visit our website, you will see a cookie banner that allows you to accept, reject or manage cookie preferences. You can change or withdraw your consent at any time using the cookie settings link.

5. Browser settings

You can also manage cookies through your browser settings. Blocking all cookies may affect how the website works.

6. Changes to this policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in law or our practices.

7. More information

For more information about how we handle personal data, please see our Privacy Policy or contact us directly.
