Third-party links

Our website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

2. THE DATA WE COLLECT AND HOW WE COLLECT IT

The data we may collect

Depending on your relationship with us (for instance, whether you are a client or professional contact), we may collect, use, store and transfer some or all of the following data:

- Identity and Contact Data: personal and identity data, including your names, date of birth, information about your family, copies of ID, and contact details;
- Financial Data: including details of your bank accounts, payment card details, payments due to you, grant payments, your income, tax details and payments;
- Business Data: including details of your business, management information, your property and your affairs, including grant applications, maps and surveys, tenancies, contract farming agreements, and licences.
- Transaction Data: details of services we provide to you.
- Profile Data: including passwords and login details for online accounts and third-party applications or service providers, such as HMRC, FarmPlan and Landmark.
- Technical Data: information we collect automatically when you visit our website ('cookies') such as your IP address, browser details, and device details.
- Marketing and Communications Data: includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and your communication preferences.

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you. In this case, we may have to cancel a product or service you have with us but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

Where we collect your data from

We may collect your data from different sources:

- We may collect all of the types data listed above directly from you when you interact with us;
- We may collect Identity and Contact Data, Financial Data, and Business Data from professionals and others providing you with services, such as your accountant, financial advisor, solicitor, or bank, all of whom are based in the United Kingdom.
- We collect Identity and Contact Data from your clients and customers who pass your details to us for the purpose of us communicating with you in connection with services we are providing.
- We also collect Business Data and Financial Data from accessing your accounts with third party suppliers, or with third party applications or online accounts, such as those with HMRC, FarmPlan and Landmark, who are based in the United Kingdom.
- We collect Technical Data automatically when you interact with our website, by using cookies and other similar technologies.

3. HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to.

We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us using the details above if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

In addition, we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, where this is required or permitted by law.

Marketing

We may use your personal data to form a view on what we think you may want or need, or what may be of interest to you. This is how we decide which products, services and offers may be relevant for you.

You may receive marketing communications from us in respect of our business and our services if you have requested information from us or purchased services from us and, in each case, you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

We do not share your contact details with any third party for the purpose of that third party sending marketing.

You can ask us or third parties to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by following the opt-out links on any marketing message sent to you or by contacting us using the details above at any time.

Aggregated Data and Benchmarking

We also collect, use and share aggregated data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. For example, we prepare anonymised benchmarking and business wealth comparison data for distribution to our existing and potential customers, intermediaries and other third parties. Although aggregated data may be derived from your personal data, it is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity.

Cookies when using our website

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see www.wilsonwraight.co.uk/documents.

4. DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in paragraph 3 above:

- Your professional advisers including your lawyers, accountants, financial advisors, bankers, insurers based in the UK or EEA.
- Third parties who we may interact with on your behalf including HMRC, DEFRA, the Rural Payments Agency and other government bodies, Landmark, Farmplan, landowners' tenants and licensors, and other parties who contract with, or engage with, you.
- Service providers based within the UK or wider EEA who provide IT and system administration services.
- Our professional advisers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers based in the UK or EEA who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services.
- HM Revenue & Customs regulators and other authorities based in the UK who require reporting of our processing activities in certain circumstances.
- Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice.

We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

5. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS

We may transfer your personal data to third parties providing services to us who are based outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). This includes parties providing IT administration services and hosting services, and parties providing assistance with managing our marketing databases (including Mailchimp).

Whenever we transfer your personal data outside of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- Transferring data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission;
- using specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe; or
- for providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield.

6. DATA RETENTION

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

We will retain your personal data for the following periods:

Category of Personal Data	Retention Period
If you are a client of Wilson Wraight
Identity and Contact Data	7 years after the end of our engagement, except for your name and basic contact details, which we retain indefinitely as a record that we have acted for you.

We will hold other technical, marketing and communications data, until the later of 12 months after the date of our last contact with you, or 1 month after you elect to opt-out of receiving marketing communications.
All other data	12 months from the date of our last contact with you.
If you are a professional contact
Technical data (such as 'cookies' from the website)	6 months after your last acceptance of the Cookie Policy on the WW website.
All data	For a period of 1 month after you elect to opt-out of receiving marketing communications.

7. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. These rights are set out below. If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact our Data Privacy Manager.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

Complaint to the ICO

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.

Your legal rights

Your legal rights are as follows:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law.
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.
- Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
